Thomas J. Siebert, Real Property Analyst 2

The above exemptions were determined using the latest data available as of July 24, 2018. The equalization factor and the sales price differential factor used to compute these exemptions are subject to change. If in the future revised exemptions are determined which are five percent or more different than the exemptions indicated above, new exemptions will be recertified to your municipality. Any recertification will occur before the last date allowed by law for the levy of school taxes.
